

Voting by proxy

Proxy voting means that if you aren't able to cast your vote in person, you can have someone you trust cast your vote for you.

If you have had a medical emergency that took place after 5pm, on the sixth working day before the poll which means that you cannot vote in person at your polling station, you can apply to vote by emergency proxy (someone else voting on your behalf). You can apply until 5pm on the day of the poll.

This form should not be used if you have been detained in a hospital under Section 145 of the Mental Health Act 1983 in England and Wales or Section 329 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003 in Scotland.

In England and Wales you must be 18 or over on polling day to vote.

In Scotland you must be 16 or over on polling day to vote in local elections and elections to the Scottish Parliament. You must be 18 or over to vote in elections to the UK Parliament and European Parliament.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- You must ask someone who is willing and capable to be your proxy and vote on your behalf.
- Fill in the proxy vote application form. You must give a reason why you need to vote by proxy and may need a qualified person to sign your application. See notes on page 2 for information on who can support your application.
- Make sure all sections of the form are complete and supply your date of birth and signature. You need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your electoral registration office.
- Return your form to your electoral registration office. You can find their details and more information at yourvotematters.co.uk

Please do not return your form to the Electoral Commission. This form can only be used after 5pm, on the sixth working day before the poll and must arrive at your electoral registration office before 5pm on the day of the poll.

If you are not already registered to vote, your application to register must have reached your electoral registration office by midnight, 12 working days before the poll.

This form and these deadlines do not apply in Northern Ireland. Visit eoni.org.uk for more information.

Voting as proxy

A person can only be a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at an election or referendum.

Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

The person you wish to appoint as your proxy can only act as proxy if they are 18 or over (16 or over in Scotland at local elections and elections to the Scottish Parliament) and they are (or will be) registered for that election or referendum.

Application to vote by emergency proxy based on disability

Who can support my application?

If they are giving care or treating you for the disability your application can be supported by:

- a registered medical practitioner (includes dentist, optician, pharmacist, osteopath, chiropractor or psychologist)
- a registered nurse
- a registered health professional

If they are giving care, treating you, or have arranged care or assistance in respect of the disability your application can be supported by:

- a registered social worker

Alternatively your application can be supported by:

- a registered mental health manager or their representative
- the person registered as running the residential care home you live in
- the warden of the premises you live in that are provided for people of pensionable age or disabled persons

If you are registered blind by a local authority and your application is based on your blindness, or you are in receipt of a benefit payment (listed below) because of the disability specified in the application, then you do not need to have your application supported. You must complete part 4B or 4C.

Benefit payments:

- A higher rate of the mobility component of a disability living allowance
- The enhanced rate of the mobility component of the personal independence payment
- An Armed Forces independence payment

What happens after I've returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote on your behalf.
- You should tell your proxy how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate, party, or outcome.
- The elections team at your council will tell your proxy when and where to vote on your behalf.

Privacy statement

The Electoral Registration Officer will only use the information you give them for electoral purposes. They will look after personal information securely and will follow data protection legislation. They will not give personal information about you or any personal information you may provide on other people to anyone else or another organisation unless they have to by law.

The lawful basis to collect the information in this form is that it is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and exercise of official authority as vested in the Electoral Registration Officer as set out in Representation of the People Act 1983 and associated regulations.

Some of the information that is collected in this form is classified as special category personal data. This is processed for reason of substantial public interest as set out in Representation of the People Act 1983 and associated regulations. To process this type of information the Data Controller must have a relevant policy document that sets out how this information will be handled.

The Electoral Registration Officer is the Data Controller. For further information relating to the processing of personal data you should refer to their privacy notice on their website. You can find their website address and contact details at yourvotematters.co.uk
